Anna Warfield advises clients on mergers and acquisitions and in private equity transactions. She has a keen attention to detail, analytical rigor and a practical, solutions-oriented approach to her work.

A foundation in legal research, writing and advocacy

While in law school, Anna served as executive articles editor of the Chicago-Kent Law Review and assisted her professor with legal research, developing her attention to detail and analytical and research skills. As a member of the Moot Court Honor Society, she competed in multiple competitions, analyzing complex legal issues and communicating effectively. As a third-year law student, Anna participated in the Chicago Environmental and Energy Law Clinic, collaborating to address client needs and develop practical solutions. She also served on the executive board of the Environmental Law Society and received multiple CALI Excellence Awards for courses including Legal Writing II, Constitutional Law and Remedies.
