Sarah O'Leary counsels clients across the healthcare and life sciences sectors on a wide array of regulatory and transactional matters. Her practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, where her background in public policy helps her anticipate and resolve compliance issues that may bear on a deal's success.

Providing clarity on complex matters

Before law school, Sarah worked in government affairs, where she helped clients in highly regulated industries assess legislative and regulatory developments at all levels of government. At Northwestern Pritzker School of Law, Sarah served as an editor of the Northwestern University Law Review and worked as a teaching assistant.
