BOOK

Ownership and Governance Structures

Published by Globe Law and Business

July 2023

Private Wealth partner Kathryn von Matthiessen, New York, has co-authored a chapter in Private Trust Companies: A Handbook for Advisers, Second Edition. The chapter covers ownership and governance structures of private trust companies, including individual, self-contained, "orphaned," and purpose trusts. Kathryn and her co-author also cover why private trust companies are created, including for family succession purposes, to develop family engagement and development and to institutionalize risk management.
