WEBINAR

Corporate Criminal Liability: What Happens When a Company is Charged With a Crime?

Presented by American Bar Association

January 11, 2017

Steven Solow, co-head of the Environmental and Workplace Safety practice and co-head of the Washington, DC White Collar, Investigations and Compliance practice, will serve as a panelist during the ABA's "Corporate Criminal Liability: What Happens When a Company is Charged With a Crime?" webinar on Wednesday, January 11 at 1:00 p.m. Eastern. The panel will discuss current issues affecting the prosecution of corporations, including:

- What is the current approach to criminal prosecution of corporations, and what questions or concerns does that raise?
- What may be the impact on corporate criminal prosecution with the new administration?
- What are existing best practices in responding to corporate criminal investigations, and should they be reconsidered in light of recent events?
