

Chicago M&A Conference

Presented by Transaction Advisors

March 2, 2017

Saul Rudo, national head of Katten's Tax Planning practice, will present the "Methods for Maximizing Value in M&A Tax Structures" session during the Chicago M&A Conference at 11:20 a.m. on Thursday, March 2. The session will explore advancements in M&A tax structuring, including methods for maximizing the seller's after-tax benefit while minimizing the buyer's after-tax burden; techniques for analyzing the impact of tax elections; how to assess tax issues in private equity transactions; and ways to navigate new regulatory considerations that may impact acquisition timing and strategy.
