

Council of Development Finance Agencies—Illinois Roundtable

Presented by Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP

May 1, 2017

Katten will host the "Latest Developments in the Illinois Bond Market" program at 5:00 p.m. on Monday, May 1. Real Estate attorney David Cohen and Government and Public Finance attorneys Renée Friedman, Milton Wakschlag, Chad Doobay and Michael Melzer will serve as panelists. Bond financing remains the bedrock finance tool for economic development in an ever-evolving market. This session will explore the recent trends in bank purchase and other private placement transactions. Our panelists will discuss:

- How private placement transactions are breathing new life into familiar financing structures
- How proposed MSRB regulations may shake up the private placement market
- How private placement financings are used in affordable housing transactions
- How to differentiate between borrower payments that are and are not tax-exempt
