

Legal Week International Private Client Forum

November 2–4, 2017

Joshua Rubenstein, national head of the firm's Trusts and Estates practice, will participate in "All's Well That Ends Well – Updates on planning for Divorce" at 5:05 p.m. (GMT+2) on Thursday, November 2. The session will review the latest developments in the UK, the Continent and the US. In particular, the discussion leaders will cover the state of play with respect to the enforceability and/or utility of prenuptial agreements, postnuptial agreements and domestic partnership agreements; the ability of trusts to safeguard assets upon divorce; and the entitlement to frozen genetic material upon divorce.
