

Health Care Services Transactions: Current Trends and Insight

Presented by Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP

October 18, 2017

Katten will host the "Health Care Services Transactions: Current Trends and Insight" panel discussion on Wednesday, October 18. Kimberly Smith, partner and co-chair of the firm's nationwide Private Equity practice, will chair the event, and Laura Keidan Martin, partner and national chair of the firm's Health Care practice, will participate as a panelist. The event aims to identify how private equity and strategic investors are working to successfully navigate the current landscape in health care services transactions.
