

Success in Style

Presented by the First Generation Professionals (FGP) at New York Law School

April 12, 2018

Karen Artz Ash, national co-chair of the firm's Intellectual Property department and co-head of the Trademarks and Trademark Litigation practice, will moderate the "Success in Style" panel discussion at 5:00 p.m. (ET) on Thursday, April 12. The program provides role models, as well as direction and guidance, to law students who are first-generation Americans and/or the first generation to attend college.
