Association of Corporate Counsel, Real Estate Network

May 24, 2018

Environmental and Workplace Safety partners Karl Heisler and Nancy Rich will present "Keeping your Clients Clean – Mitigating Environmental Risks in Real Estate Transactions" at 3:00 p.m. (ET) on Thursday, May 24. The webinar will address how environmental liabilities can threaten to upend commercial real estate transactions, and often do. The panelists will discuss how sophisticated companies nevertheless routinely acquire and divest properties with environmental conditions ranging from mold, asbestos, radon and lead paint to extensive industrial groundwater and soil contamination. They will cover representations, warranties, indemnifications, and pre- and post-closing covenants designed to assess, manage and mitigate environmental risk.
