

P.R.I.M.E. Finance Annual Conference 2019

Presented by the Panel of Recognized and International Market Experts in Finance

February 4–5, 2019

For the eighth year in a row, the Panel of Recognized and International Market Experts in Finance (P.R.I.M.E.) will host a gathering of distinguished practitioners, academics, judges, regulators and experts who influence the day-to-day workings of the international financial markets.

Carolyn Jackson, a Katten Muchin Rosenman UK LLP Financial Services partner, will be participating in the panel entitled, "EU–1: Brexit's Implications for Financial Markets" on February 4. This panel will consider Brexit's many legal implications for financial markets.

Gary DeWaal, Financial Services special counsel, will be participating in a panel entitled, "The Not So Hidden Reality of Cryptocurrencies: Regulatory Enforcement and Litigation" on February 5. This panel will explore how regulators and private litigants are working to fit cryptocurrencies into traditional categories, while preserving their essential innovative nature.
