

The University of Texas School of Law 31st Annual Health Law Conference

Presented by the University of Texas Law

March 27–29, 2019

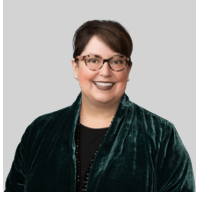

Three Katten attorneys will participate in the 31st Annual Health Law Conference on March 27–29. National Health Care practice co-chair Lisa Atlas Genecov, Health Care partner Kenya Scott Woodruff and Corporate contract attorney Missy Apodaca will serve on the planning committee of the event as well as moderating panel discussions.

On Thursday, March 28, Missy will moderate the "2019 State and Federal Healthcare Legislative Landscape" panel at 10:45 a.m., and Kenya will moderate the "Reimbursement Changes and the Modern-Day Physician Practice" panel at 2:30 p.m. Lisa will moderate the "Affiliations, Sales, and Conversions Among Non-Profit and For-Profit Healthcare Organizations" panel at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, March 29.

The 31st Annual Health Law Conference brings together leading in-house attorneys from major hospitals and medical institutions, government officials, and legal and financial advisors representing hospitals, healthcare providers and physicians. It provides practical and detailed coverage of updates, current issues, and key strategies and opportunities facing members of the health care community. For more information, click here.
