

Healthcare Law & Compliance Institute

Presented by the International Performance Management Institute

March 3–5, 2019

Three Katten attorneys will present during IPMI's 2019 Healthcare Law & Compliance Institute on Sunday, March 3 to Tuesday, March 5. Laura Keidan Martin, national co-chair of the firm's Health Care practice, will present "Critical Insights, Updated and Considerations in the Healthcare Law Landscape" on Sunday, March 3. On Monday, March 4, Health Care partners Kenya Woodruff and Ken Davis will present "Navigating Legal Realities While Achieving the Goal of Innovative Healthcare Delivery," and a think tank session on "How to Make Ambulatory Care Ventures Work," respectively.

The Healthcare Law & Compliance Institute brings together health care legal executives and leaders from legal service providers for networking, learning, sharing of insights and strategies, and discussions on the risks and opportunities facing the US health care industry.
