

London Weekly Fireside Chat, Week 10

July 24, 2020

Katten hosts a weekly, 15-minute fireside chat podcast series on notable UK and European developments from the prior week's Corporate & Financial Weekly Digest. This week, Neil Robson covers some proposed changes to the UK Financial Promotions/ investment advertising rules, including a proposal to include cryptoassets, as well, separately, as a proposal for a new UK Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) deauthorization mechanism for FCA regulated firms, Nathaniel Lalone reports on some long-awaited good news on the EU's troubled settlement discipline regime and Carolyn Jackson discusses the notification by the European Supervisory Authorities to the European Commission about the outcome of the review of the packaged retail and insurance-based investment products (PRIIP) key information document.
