

Thinking Outside the Tick Box: Why Compliance Training is the New Competitive Advantage

Presented by Thomson Reuters

October 7, 2020

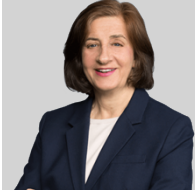

Susan Light, a partner in the Financial Markets and Funds practice, will participate in "Thinking Outside the Tick Box: Why Compliance Training is the New Competitive Advantage" at 10:00 a.m. (CT) on Wednesday, October 7. Speakers will share practical insights on how to transform a compliance culture from a necessary burden to a competitive advantage, discuss why compliance training is imperative to a successful organization, and give guidance on:

- Overcoming the common misperception of compliance learning as a necessary burden
- Assessing and understanding limitations and opportunities in the current environment
- Developing a multi-pronged approach to address current pain points and better equip an organization for future compliance challenges
- Setting an organization up for success with a compliance learning strategy
