Health Law Section Fall Meeting Part 1: Ethical Issues And Legal Reform In The New COVID-19 Healthcare Environment

Presented by the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA)

October 23, 2020

Alan Brudner, New York Litigation partner and chair of the NYSBA Bioethical Issues Committee, will participate in the "Scarcity and Medical Futility Decisions Under Crisis Standards – Role of Immunity and Waivers Beyond the Pandemic" discussion at 10:05 a.m. (ET) on Friday, October 23. Panelists will discuss ethics and the role of the law in the aftermath of COVID-19 stemming from the difficult decisions that medical practitioners across New York State and beyond faced, and questions about the results of those decisions that have emerged as the crisis passes and the long-term work continues.
