

Class Action Lawsuits - what you need to know

Presented by CUNA Councils

March 31, 2021

Class Action/Consumer Finance Litigation partner Stuart Richter and Litigation partners Andrew Demko and Tami Kameda Sims will speak on "Class Action Lawsuits - what you need to know" at 9:00 a.m. (PT) on Wednesday, March 31. They will give an update on class action liability trends, and share what is happening in the financial arena, and how to protect a credit union from the latest theories being asserted by plaintiffs, lawyers and regulators, including:

- New theories relating to overdraft fees, foreign transaction fees and other types of deposit fees
- GAP insurance claims being asserted against direct and indirect lenders based on contractual obligations and state statutes
- Consumer privacy related claims beyond those associated with data breaches

This webinar is only open to CUNA Council members.
