

The Illinois Trust Code: Highlights for Fiduciaries — Notices and Accounts

Presented by the Illinois Bankers Association

April 6, 2021

The Illinois Bankers Association will hold a meeting entitled, "The Illinois Trust Code: Highlights for Fiduciaries," on Tuesday, April 6 from 9:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m. The meeting will be presented by four members of the committee that drafted the Illinois Trust Code (ITC) and discuss how the code is relevant to fiduciaries, including fiduciary duties, identifying the people who should receive notices and accounts, notices and accounts, creditors' rights and trust modification.

One of the agenda items, "Notices and Accounts," will discuss new rules for providing information to beneficiaries under the ITC, when the new rules apply and how they apply to trusts.
