

64th Annual Estate Planning Short Course

Presented by the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education

May 25, 2021

Chicago Private Wealth partner David Allen will participate in the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education's (IICLE) 64th Annual Estate Planning Short Course on Tuesday, May 25. IICLE's annual program offers more than 18 hours of in-depth education on issues of importance to estate plan attorneys across the state of Illinois. David, in addition to David Blickenstaff from Schiff Hardin LLP, will present during a session entitled, "Intersection of Alternative Investments & Estate Planning: Taxation, Planning and Fiduciary Risk Issues." The session's moderator will be Kim Kamin of Gresham Partners, LLC.

The session will explore both the benefits, challenges and risks of alternative investments in trust and other estate planning vehicles for fiduciaries and beneficiaries.

IICLE is a program that offers continuing legal education in Illinois.
