

Virtual Healthcare Law & Compliance Institute

Presented by the International Performance Management Institute (IPMI)

March 9–11, 2021

Katten Health Care practice co-chair Laura Keidan Martin and associate Rachel Adams will participate in the Virtual Healthcare Law & Compliance Institute on Tuesday, March 9, and Wednesday, March 10. At 11:15 a.m. (ET), Laura Keidan Martin, co-chair of Katten's national Health Care practice, will participate in the "Critical Insights, Updates and Considerations in the Healthcare Law Landscape" panel. Speakers will discuss issues affecting health care providers today, and answer some of the key questions on the minds of hospital and health care system GCs and CLOs.

At 1:10 p.m. (ET) on Wednesday, March 10, Laura and Health Care associate Rachel Adams will speak on "Strategic Transactions in Challenging Times," discussing how to properly manage financial and regulatory risk in the increased opportunities for successful health systems' physician collaborations, hospital acquisitions, partnerships with niche management companies, creative clinical affiliations and CINs/value-based arrangements in the midst of the pandemic and the storm of recent regulatory changes.
