

25th Annual Women in Public Finance Conference

Presented by Women in Public Finance

September 23–24, 2021

Women in Public Finance (WPF) is a professional networking organization for women in the public finance industry. WPF seeks to advance women's leadership opportunities by fostering relationships and providing educational activities and forums.

Katten will serve as sponsor at the 25th Annual Women in Public Finance Conference on Thursday, September 23 and Friday, September 24. This year the national conference, a chance to gather and explore timely topics together, is all about being Stronger Together, celebrating the triumphs of the past 25 years and exploring where we go from here.
