

Internal Investigations 2021

Presented by the Practising Law Institute (PLI)

November 17, 2021

Daniel Collins, White Collar and Internal Investigations partner, will participate in the "Commencing the Internal Investigation: Considerations at the Outset" segment of PLI's Internal Investigations 2021 conference on Wednesday, November 17. The segment will address topics including how to deal with allegations by a whistleblower, when an investigation is warranted, who should know about the investigation, and more.

During the one-day conference, speakers will review the fundamentals of conducting an effective and efficient investigation using a real-world hypothetical with animated video to bring the story to life.
