

Washington Health Law Summit 2021

Presented by the American Bar Association (ABA) Health Law Section

December 6-7, 2021

Two Katten Health Care attorneys will participate in the ABA Health Law Section's Washington Health Law Summit 2021 on Monday, December 6 and Tuesday, December 7. Partner and Deputy General Counsel Kenya Woodruff will serve as co-chair of the event, and will contribute to the opening remarks at 8:40 a.m. on Monday, December 6.

On Tuesday, December 7, senior counsel Missy Apodaca will speak on "No Surprises Act and Pricing Transparency" at 9:45 a.m. Panelists will highlight new laws and regulations and possible reimbursement levels under the No Surprise Act's requirements, and discuss how health plans and providers can use their data to better prepare for arbitration, and the ways payers and providers can leverage transparency data to improve their contract negotiation process and out-of-network reimbursement strategies.
