

2022 Section of Family Law Spring CLE Conference

Presented by the American Bar Association (ABA)

April 20–23, 2022

Joshua Rubenstein, national chair of the firm's Private Wealth practice, will participate in the "Where There isn't a Will, There Might be a Way: Planned and Unplanned Posthumous Reproduction" discussion at 8:40 a.m. on Thursday, April 21. Panelists will discuss how, and how much, we can control posthumous reproduction, planned and unplanned; the impact of posthumous reproduction on the intestacy system and the establishment of the parent-child relationship; and surrogacy contract provisions, guardian nomination documents and their relationship to estate plans.
