SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT

17th Annual Paragraph IV Disputes Conference

Presented by the American Conference Institute

April 26–27, 2022

Deepro Mukerjee, chair of Katten's global Intellectual Property practice, will speak on "The Business of PIV Disputes — Cross-Border Business Considerations in a Hatch-Waxman Scenario: Masterfully Managing Global Litigation" at 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, April 26. The session will cover:

- Assessing common international business scenarios encountered by both brand name and generic manufacturers which may lead to patent and/or exclusivity loss
- Identifying potential safe-harbor violation liabilities related to foreign manufacturers and finishers
- Building a winning global litigation team
- Selecting the right foreign counsel
- Coordinating multijurisdictional proceedings
- Assessing the impact and dangers of applicable international treaties on the PIV landscape
