

Futures & Derivatives Law Seminar 2022: ESG, Black Swans, and Enforcement Trends

Presented by the Chicago Bar Association

June 15, 2022

James Brady, counsel in the Financial Markets and Funds practice, will participate in the "What Does ESG Mean for Derivatives Markets?" discussion during the Chicago Bar Association's Futures & Derivatives Law Seminar 2022: ESG, Black Swans, and Enforcement Trends, beginning at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, June 15. The hybrid seminar will include discussions on:

- ESG developments in derivatives markets, including a new framework for assessing climate risk in derivatives markets, carbon pricing, emissions futures products and private fund governance
- The legal and regulatory impacts of Black Swan events such as those that recently occurred in energy and metals derivatives markets
- The enforcement trends that are top of mind in self-regulatory organizations
