

General Counsel Conference East 2022

Presented by ALM

September 19–20, 2022

Farzad Damania, a partner in Katten's Capital Markets practice, will participate in "ESG is not One Size Fits All: Undertaking ESG Integration for Businesses" at 10:05 a.m. on Tuesday, September 20. Panelists will discuss the increasingly significant focus on ESG across different industries and locations, and how in-house counsel will need to align the goals of their organizations and help strategize the best plan of action to mitigate risks to come with regulations, enforcement and expectations continually evolving quickly around ESG matters. The discussion will include information on how to advise businesses on implementing ESG policies and structure, stakeholder communications, reporting framework and monitoring the effectiveness of compliance efforts.
