

Seventeenth Annual Investment Treaty Arbitration Symposium

Presented by JURIS Conferences

October 12, 2023

Miriam Harwood, partner and International Arbitration chair, will serve as a panelist during the "Will investor-state mediation emerge as the preferred mechanism to resolve investor-state disputes? What are the pros and cons as opposed to investor-state arbitration?" session on Thursday, October 12 at 3:45 p.m. ET during the Seventeenth Annual Investment Treaty Arbitration Symposium. The session will feature investment treaty arbitration (ITA) "rising superstars" from all over the world, each taking a side in arguing contentious issues. Miriam and the rest of the panel of experienced and distinguished professionals will debate and discuss the positions presented and the issue more generally.

Learn more about the Investment Treaty Arbitration Symposium.