

Women in the Boardroom Chicago Connections Event

September 11, 2012

Katten's Women's Leadership Forum will sponsor the Women in the Boardroom Chicago Connections Event on Tuesday, September 11. LouAnn Layton, a managing director for international insurance broker Marsh Inc., will answer questions about directors and officers liability insurance. Her presentation will address:

- What directors should know about their directors and officers liability protection
- A director's legal obligations to board service
- The protections available to a director
- How to best protect personal financial wealth from litigation
