Presented by the Osgoode Fashion Law Society of York University

March 26, 2025

Intellectual Property Partner and National Co-Chair of our Trademark/Copyright/Privacy Group Karen Artz Ash will present virtually at the Annual Panel Event for the Osgoode Fashion Law Society (OFLS) of Osgoode Hall Law School at York University in Toronto. Karen was invited as an "excellent contributor" to the panel due to her renowned legal prowess in the fashion industry, particularly her experience representing global fashion, retail, luxury and beauty brands.

The panel, which will be a structured Q&A session with students, will cover industry insights gained throughout each guest speaker's career, guidance for students seeking careers focused on fashion law and opportunities abroad in the United States and Europe, the evolution of fashion law and recommended publications for industry insights. Each guest presenter will be invited to make opening remarks before the Q&A begins.
