Alternative Real Estate Investment Strategies for Family Offices

Presented by Katten

March 10, 2026

Katten's Family Offices practice will host a discussion exploring alternative real estate investment strategies for family offices on Tuesday, March 10, at 12:00 p.m. This program is designed for family office principals, investment professionals and advisors seeking a clearer understanding of the full spectrum of real estate investment options beyond traditional funds.

Family offices are increasingly looking beyond traditional real estate investment strategies in search of greater control, enhanced returns and more flexible capital solutions. Join Real Estate Senior Counsels Alvin Katz and Timothy Little, with guest speakers Tim Anderson (CEO and Founder) and Vicky G. Lee (Executive Vice President, Capital Markets and Investments) from Focus and Chris Baker (Head of Capital Markets) from Dwight Mortgage Trust as they dive into topics such as:

- Investing directly alongside developers and operators through sponsor equity
- How sponsor equity structures work and how they compare to traditional funds and real estate investment trusts (REITs) in terms of risk, control and returns
- The expanding universe of private real estate debt, including senior, mezzanine and structured debt
- How family offices are using debt to complement and balance equity exposure

Register for March 10 here.
