

Culture Under the Microscope: Where Rights Meet Responsibility

Presented by RQC Group

June 10, 2026

Financial Markets and Funds Partner Neil Robson and Senior Associate Brigitte Weaver will co-present during RQC Group's breakfast briefing, "Culture Under the Microscope: Where Rights Meet Responsibility," on Wednesday, June 10, at 8:30 a.m. BST.

Culture, conduct and accountability are now front and center for asset managers. With the FCA sharpening its focus on non-financial misconduct and employment law undergoing significant reform, firms face heightened regulatory, legal and reputational risk if workplace behavior is mishandled. This session will examine how these developments intersect — covering the FCA's new Non-Financial Misconduct rules (including real-life cases such as the Odey matter), the Employment Rights Act's impact on unfair dismissal, sexual harassment duties and flexible working, and practical steps to ensure disciplinary actions are robust and defensible.
