FIRM EVENT

American Health Law Association (AHLA) Fundamentals of Health Law Conference

Presented by the American Health Law Association

November 2, 2026

Katten Healthcare Counsel Vinal Patel will speak at the American Health Law Association (AHLA) Fundamentals of Health Law Conference, taking place November 1-3 in Chicago. The annual conference is a foundational training program for health law professionals. It is designed for attorneys new to health law, in-house counsel, compliance officers and other advisors to healthcare clients, and also offers experienced practitioners an update on recent developments across the field.

Vinal will lead the session “The Future Is Now: Essential Health Care AI Knowledge for Early Career Lawyers.” The session will introduce key AI terms and use cases, explain how existing legal frameworks apply to emerging technologies and will close with practical guidance on spotting issues, advising clients and structuring artificial intelligence-related healthcare matters.
