

16th National Conference on Consumer Finance Class Actions & Litigation

July 29–30, 2013

Katten is a supporting sponsor of the 16th National Conference on Consumer Finance Class Actions & Litigation, presented by the American Conference Institute. The faculty includes federal and state regulatory and enforcement officials, senior in-house counsel, renowned federal and state judges and leading outside defense counsel, who will provide expert advice, critical insights and comprehensive updates on new class action trends, emerging theories of liability, the latest enforcement actions and regulatory initiatives, and the most effective defense and settlement strategies.

Partner Gregory Korman will moderate the In-House Roundtable on “How Corporate Counsel are Managing Consumer Finance Claims/Class Actions and Compliance Challenges” at 8:05 a.m. on Monday, July 29. Partner Stuart Richter will participate in a discussion on “Defending Against New and Emerging Claims Relating to Credit, Debit, and Prepaid Cards and Bank Add-On Services and Products” at 2:55 p.m. on Tuesday, July 30.
