

ABA Capital Markets Seminar for Corporate Trust Professionals

April 23 - 25, 2006

On April 24 at 3:45 p.m., Partner Michele D. Ross will be on a panel discussing "International Corporate Trust," which will cover current issues impacting internal corporate trust, including global bond/international finance, foreign collateral, working within foreign law and more.

Presented by the American Bankers Association, this is the only corporate trust meeting that covers the full range of critical issues affecting senior-level corporate trust professionals.

For more information and to register, visit the ABA Web site.