

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT

2nd International Private Client Conference: Russia & Commonwealth of Independent States 2013

Presented by Adam Smith Conferences

October 8–10, 2013

Joshua Rubenstein, national head of the Trusts and Estates practice, will speak on “The Global Trend Towards International Information Sharing and Tax Harmonisation, and What It Means for the Russian/CIS Client” at 12:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 10. The discussion will provide an update on the US Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act and existing tax information exchange agreements in the United Kingdom and its dependencies along with other jurisdictions such as Cyprus, Russia and Switzerland. The future of bank secrecy and prospects for automatic exchange of data in the EU will also be examined.
