Katten

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT

Planning for International Estates 101

Presented by ALI CLE and The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel

September 12, 2013

Partner Beth Tractenberg will chair a panel discussion on “Planning for International Estates 101” at 12:30 p.m. EDT on Thursday, September 12. Fellows of The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel will explore how IRS statutes and regulations differ for cross-border and non-citizens with a focus on issues related to a client's citizenship and domicile. Topics will include income tax versus transfer tax rules, ownership and titling of assets, treaties and forms of asset ownership.

For more information, click here.