

Private Client Forum Singapore

Presented by Legal Week

September 12, 2013

Josh Rubenstein, national head of the Trusts and Estates practice, will participate in a panel discussion on “Future of Wealth Management in Southeast Asia” at 3:55 p.m. on Thursday, September 12. The session will review how private banks deal with the evolution of wealth management in Southeast Asia and the impact it will have on the products being offered to clients. Panelists will also debate the implications for offshore tax havens, such as the Cayman Islands, as well as “midshore” jurisdictions such as Singapore and Hong Kong.
