

Trusts & Estates Symposium 2013: Legal Perspectives on Fiduciary Investment and the Economics of Marriage

Presented by the Los Angeles County Bar Association Trusts and Estates Section

September 27, 2013

Partner Abby Feinman will participate in the panel discussion “Planning for Couples in a Time of Transition” on Friday, September 27. The program will examine the Windsor case, the differences facing California couples as opposed to couples in other states, pros and cons of registered domestic partnerships versus getting married, and considerations for the planner in drafting a couple's or an individual's estate plan based upon their status.
