

The 10th Annual Advanced eDiscovery Institute

Presented by Georgetown Law Continuing Legal Education

November 21–22, 2013

Martin Tully, national head of the Electronic Discovery and Information Governance practice, will participate in the panel discussion “Technology-Assisted Review One Year After Da Silva Moore: Where Are We? Where Are We Going?” at 9:15 a.m. on Friday, November 22. The session will present a big-picture view of technology-assisted review, and explore the relevant trends, open issues and direction for 2014.

For more information, click here.