SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT

Sixth Annual Infrastructure Investors Finance Forum Americas 2014

February 25, 2014

Katten is pleased to sponsor the Sixth Annual Infrastructure Investors Finance Forum Americas 2014, the industry's leading principal investing event for the infrastructure community focusing on mergers and acquisitions, deal sourcing, financing, fundraising and asset valuations.

Partner Michael Murphy will chair the discussion “State of the Debt Capital Markets” at 12:20 p.m. on Tuesday, February 25. A panel of leaders from across the debt capital markets will look back at the main financing trends of 2013 and address the following questions:

- Are market conditions and liquidity expected to improve further in 2014?
- Can the success of power financings in the term loan B market be replicated for infrastructure assets?
- Will underwritings return, given the improvement in market conditions?
- What role will infrastructure debt funds play in the markets?
