

Financial Services Transactions: Increased Exposure Under FERA and False Claims Act

Presented by Strafford

July 15, 2009

Partner Gil Soffer will speak on “Financial Services Transactions: Increased Exposure Under FERA and False Claims Act” at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 15.

Topics of the conference include:

- How does FERA expand the definition of fraud under securities laws?
- How is the False Claims Act now implicated in various government bailout programs and what does this mean for participating financial institutions?
- What is the profile of a typical whistleblower and what financial incentives are offered under the False Claims Act?
