

Go Red For Women Luncheon

Presented by the American Heart Association

February 29, 2008

Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP will serve as a sponsor to the American Heart Association's Go Red For Women Luncheon on February 29 at Macy's in Chicago.

The Luncheon is the flagship event of the movement which will feature a Town Hall meeting, educational sessions, health screenings, keynote speaker and passion speaker. Since inception, nearly 250 Go Red For Women luncheons have been held raising more than $15 million for local Go Red For Women programs.

Go Red For Women is the American Heart Association's national movement to make women aware of their risk for heart disease, the No. 1 cause of death among women, and take action to reduce their risk. Join the Go Red For Women movement and take the Go Red For Women Heart CheckUp at www.GoRedForWomen.org to find out your 10-year personal risk for heart disease. Visit your healthcare provider on a yearly basis to control your blood pressure, cholesterol and weight.
