February 10, 2010

The Women's Leadership Forum will host a luncheon that is sure to be inspiring to all, entitled "Leadership, Perseverance and Strength." The event will feature a special guest speaker and recent recipient of The International Women's Media Foundation Courage in Journalism Award, who will tell her astonishing story firsthand on her fight to report abuses on human rights and the repression of press freedom, including unflinching stories on the ineffectiveness and corruption of government officials.
