

Litigating Class Actions Between Class Certification and Trial

Presented by the Class Action Law Monitor

August 11, 2009

Partner Theresa Davis will speak on "Litigating Class Actions Between Class Certification and Trial" at 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday, August 11.

Topics of the conference include:

- What are the strategic considerations that should guide counsel when drafting the class certification order?
- Under what circumstances should counsel consider requesting a motion for decertification or appellate review of the certification decision?
- What techniques have been effective for opposing various pre-trial motions?
- What are some best practices for plaintiff and defense counsel for obtaining discovery of essential information in the most cost-effective manner?
