

Living in a Fishbowl: Managing the Risks of Federal Scrutiny through Effective Corporate Compliance

April 30, 2009

Avoiding or withstanding the scrutiny of government enforcers and/or investigators is top of mind for in-house counsel and compliance officers when it comes to corporate governance. This interactive discussion will feature insights on how to manage the "all eyes on you feeling."

Discussion topics include:

- What can you do to reduce risk or exposure to government inquiry/investigations?
- What steps could actually save money and avoid fines, not to mention criminal exposure?
- What are the bare minimums needed for an effective corporate compliance program?
- Why is it critical to have an effective compliance program?
