

2014 ACMA Annual Meeting

September 18–20, 2014

Andrew Jagoda, co-head of the New York Real Estate practice, will participate in the panel discussion “Letters of Intent: Traps for the Unwary Lender” at the 2014 ACMA Annual Meeting. Panelists will discuss circumstances under which some or all of the purportedly “non-binding” terms of a letter of intent may be enforceable on the lender, and the potential consequences to a lender that finds itself in that position. The panel will conclude with drafting tips to employ when asked to assist with a client's letter of intent.
