

SPA's Third Annual Autumn Summit on Structured Products

Presented by the Structured Products Association

October 15–17, 2007

Partners Henry Bregstein and Kathleen Moriarty will speak at the Structured Products Association's (SPA) Third Annual Autumn Summit on October 15 - 17, 2007.

This conference will show what to expect in the coming year from this compelling investment class, including detailed discussions of the various types of structured products linked to hedge funds and commodities. In addition, the Summit will cover the latest regulatory and tax developments in the structured products arena, provide detailed discussion of the distribution climate, and focus in on what's developing in the international world of structured products.
