SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT

Tenth Annual Real Estate Tax Forum

Presented by the Practising Law Institute

January 31–February 1, 2008

Partner Jill Darrow will speak at the Tenth Annual Real Estate Tax Forum on “Choice of Entity; Current Structures; Tax Planning for LLCs Holding Real Estate; and Exit Strategies” on February 1 at 9:00 a.m. The session will discuss:

- Simple and complex tiered structures;
- Single member LLC issues;
- Mergers and divisions; mixing bowl rules;
- Capital gains planning;
- Deferring gain recognition; and
- Ethics.

At this annual program, nationally-recognized real estate tax experts will provide attorneys, accountants and real estate professionals with both an overview of the tax laws pertaining to real estate ownership and investment, and a detailed analysis of the most sophisticated and creative tax planning techniques available for structuring, restructuring and unwinding real estate transactions in today's markets. Using extensive visual aids and actual deal structures, this group of entertaining speakers/practitioners will share their vast experience, using today's state-of-the-art planning techniques, with an emphasis on the practical approach to solving difficult tax issues affecting real estate investors and operators.
