

The 5th Annual Public Private Partnerships USA Summit

Presented by City & Financial

March 11–13, 2009

Partner Michael Murphy will speak on “Increasing the Flexibility of Private Activity Bonds, TIFIA and Variable Pricing Issues of the Interstate Highway System” at 11:40 a.m. on Thursday, March 12.

This conference will provide a platform for federal and state representatives to meet with private sector experts in order to share their ideas on, and experience of, the development and implementation of Public Private Partnerships (PPP) projects throughout the country. The conference will present details of emerging PPP programs and discuss solutions to some of the more intractable problems involved in making PPPs work in this challenging market.
